Ken Adamo practices in all areas of intellectual property law, including patent, trademark, copyright, unfair competition, trade secrets, bankruptcy, employment contract, and related antitrust matters. He is registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office, Reg. No. 27,299 (1974); and is admitted to the state bars of Illinois (1975); New York (1976); Ohio (1984); and Texas (1988).

Mr. Adamo has extensive trial experience as lead counsel in jury and non-jury matters before the state and federal courts, and before the International Trade Commission, as well as ex parte and inter partes experience in the US Patent and Trademark Office and with non-US patent and trademark authorities. He also has had extensive experience as lead counsel in arbitrations (ICC, AAA, as well as non-administered proceedings) and other alternative dispute resolution proceedings.

While acting as trial counsel makes up the core of his practice, Mr. Adamo has an active practice before the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, where he has appeared to date in over 25 appeals, most of which he has argued.

Mr. Adamo has written and lectured extensively on intellectual property law, for both US and non-US publications and organizations, on topics and issues including U.S. motion practice, International Trade Commission proceedings, reexamination, fraud/inequitable conduct in procuring patents, attorney disqualification, business methods protection, U.S. patent enforcement, reissue patents, means plus function claims, combined-reference obviousness, cyberart, the best mode requirement, the doctrine of equivalents/prosecution history estoppel, exhaustion, Internet jurisdiction, software patents, patent marking, effects of non-US adjudications on U.S. litigation, and trademark infringement. He also has written and lectured on a wide variety of trial and litigation issues, skills and training.

Recent major representations in intellectual property litigation as lead counsel include US federal court and ITC cases for Texas Instruments, IBM, Procter & Gamble, SABIC, Ficosa International, Atofina, Nestle, Marconi Medical, Timken, Dell Computer, Apple Computer and Motorola

Education: Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (BSCh.E. 1972); The Albany Law School of Union University (JD 1975); The John Marshall Law School (LLM 1989).
